Title Position	Old Roosevelt Writer
Brief Description (What are the primary duties and necessary skills? Remember to keep it upbeat, fun, and short!)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Write stories of interest that can be shared through our multi-faceted communications structure.</li> <li>• Focus on the different potential aspects of the building.</li> <li>• Follow the steering committee developments and share them more widely.</li> </ul>
Time, Place, Duration (Fixed or flexible schedule, remote or physical, long-term or single event, etc.)	This is a long-term volunteer position with a flexible schedule. Average 1-2 hours a week when available. You could work from our Center, from your home, or you favorite outdoor spaces!
Qualifications/Interests (Required or preferred. Is this a youth or adult position?)	Must be able to create stories and scenarios that captivate people of the essence of what the Old Roosevelt Arts & Culture center could be for the community.
Orientation and Training (How will you make sure your volunteer is prepared for the task?)	Our volunteer advocate will meet with you to orientate you to the Foundation and then set up a meeting with your supervisor who will discuss the position description. You will be invited to a Foundation orientation to learn more about the Voice of the Foundation within the community.
Organization Description (Briefly state what you do in the community.)	Connecting people and building community by catalyzing change and sharing resources to build a strong, vibrant, resilient, inclusive community.
Why is this position important to the organization?	Your efforts are crucial to share the factual word! We need to send consistent information into the community to build momentum for a successful project that will serve a very diverse sector of the community, that has long been in need. You will share Vision, options, and a variety of possibilities.
Misc. (Anything else you want to say.)	The Old Roosevelt project has been at work for 5 years and has built a lot of momentum over the past 2 years and we need more help. We have a lot of information we can provide you as background.
